Farmingville, NY – On October 23, Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright celebrated the 23rd Annual Walk for Beauty/Hercules Run in Stony Brook. In spite of the cold, hundreds of combined walkers and runners took to the streets to raise funds for Breast Cancer Research at Stony Brook University Hospital which has raised over $1.3 million since its inception in 1994. A portion of the funds will help pay for wigs and prosthesis for cancer patients. The event is an all-volunteer initiative with no administrative costs and all proceeds stay in the community. Also pictured (starting third from left) are Walk for Beauty Event Co-Chairperson Carol Simpco, State Senator John Flanagan, Ward Melville Heritage Organization President Gloria Rocchio, Assemblyman Steve Englebright, Councilwoman Cartright

and Legislator Kara Hahn.

"This annual event always inspires me. I am thrilled to be a part of it again and am fortified by the level of generosity of this community. Together, we truly can make a difference," said Councilwoman Cartright.
